Contest Circulation Classes (for editorial entries only):

Based on if you publish statewide content or local content on which category you are in.

News Media: Statewide*News Media: Local*Group News–Media Members

A writer, copy editor, page designer or photographer cannot compete in more than one class. If an entry is written, designed, photographed, and appears in more than one publication in that group, it should be submitted by the original publication regardless of the circulation.

Example. An article written by the Greenville Daily News (circ 4331) and published in the Huron County View (circ 18187). The article should be entered in the contest by the Greenville Daily News.

How to Enter:

1. Select best issues, story or photo for each competition. Keep in mind criteria for judging and any special rules for the contest category of competition being entered.
2. No entry may be submitted in more than one similar category. Example: you cannot submit the same story in Sports Writing and Sports Feature.
Acceptable Exception: If a Local News entry happens to appear in a special section or special contest such as Public Service Award.
3. Entrants may include brief background information on the community or communities they serve, publishing conditions of the publication or about the entry itself. Please use the “comments” area when submitting your entry to convey this to the judges. Communication to the judge must be included with each entry, rather than one letter covering all entries.
4. Any entries in Categories 1–15 can be entered in the Open Categories.
5. Entrants must make sure that the entry they are entering is attributed to the correct publication.
6. Entrants must make sure that all the information they are entering for headlines and credit is what they want on the certificates. The information you enter is what we use for the press releases and certificates.

How to submit entries online:

- A. Begin by going to www.betterbnc.com to upload your entries. A “Contestant Manager” widget will guide you through the entry process. If you were the contestant manager last year your login & password has not changed.

- B. If the category you are entering has a limit on the number of entries allowed (categories #8, 10, and MPA Rookie Writer), that category will no longer display in the dropdown menu on the “Submit Entry” page once you’ve reached the limit.
- C. A single uploaded file can be up to 10 megabytes in size. However, it is strongly recommended you compress files to under 5 MB in size, so that judges can quickly view your entries.
- D. Please note that you may change your selection of entries as often as you would like by going back to the “Managing Entries” page before the October 1 deadline.
- E. If submitting full-page pdf files clearly indicate photos and stories being judged in the comments area.
- F. If you are submitting a URL that is behind a paywall, please make sure to include the username and password, so the judges can judge the category.

Special Awards, Contests & Instructions

News Media Publication of the Year Award

The News Media Publication of the Year Award honors the publication winning the most points awarded for placing in each editorial contest. There will be one award in each of the eight editorial circulation classes. Contest categories 1–15 count toward the award.

First Place..... .... 100 points

Second Place.... .... 70 points

Third Place ..... .... 40 points

MPA Rookie Writer Award

Good writing and reporting are critical to the success of publications. That requires good writers and reporters. In order to recognize exemplary efforts of new writers just breaking into the field of journalism, MPA has established a Rookie Writer Award. Reporters who have fewer than three years' experience in the publication industry are eligible for consideration. Winning writers will not be eligible in future years. Only one entrant per publication.

An entry consists of the following:

- At least three, but no more than five stories. Stories should be solely written by the entrant and can be hard news, features or published commentary.
- A letter of nomination from the editor is required explaining what sets the writer apart.

These should be uploaded online at www.betterbnc.com as an entry in the Rookie Writer Award Category.

Public Notice Journalism Award–This will be judged by Michigan publication professionals.

The purpose of this competition is to recognize excellence in journalism that draws reader attention to public notices, and to encourage reporters and editors to incorporate public notice and public notice issues into their reporting and writing. The story must originate from a public notice.

For purposes of this award, public notice is defined as announcements or disclosures the law requires a governmental unit or private party to publish in a statutorily qualified publication.

Entries must consist of a news story or series (not an editorial or opinion piece) initially prompted by a public notice that drew attention to the subject, or in which a public notice or the omission of a public notice figured heavily in the reporting. Stories should reference and/or provide a link to the notice; or if the story is based on a public notice requirement that was not met or was deficient, it must describe the deficiency.

Editorials or opinion pieces about public notice DO NOT qualify.

In addition to the story, entries that aren't about the omission or deficiency of a public notice must include a copy of the original notice that was the source or subject of the reporting.

Entries may be accompanied by a brief explanation (one single-spaced page or less) that provides context about the story and/or a description of its impact. This award comes with a $200 prize to the winner, sponsored by Detroit Legal News Publishing.

NEW – Reporting on Extremism and Traumatic Events in MI

Each year, the contest and the MPA Annual Convention planners choose a “hot topic”. We then cover that topic with experts at convention and make it a special award for reporting in the BNC.

Frequently Asked Questions*What file formats may be used to enter the contest?

If you are not using a URL to link to your entry, the best file format to use is a low-resolution PDF. Please combine multiple PDFs and compress to the recommended size of 5mb or lower. Acceptable file types are PDF, JPG, GIF, and PNG — NO Word files!

What if my information is wrong or my paper is not listed?

Contact bnc@michiganpress.org and your information will be reviewed.

What combination of online and print publications can I use?

With this year's contest, website work can be included with writing entries.

Online-only news sources would provide URLs to their entries, but any print publication may submit online-only work as well as supplemental digital work that support a printed story. Submit the URL along with the PDF of a story.

Unsure what you can submit from your publication's website? For example, if you published a feature story that had one large photograph in the print edition, but an entire gallery of photographs online, can you submit a URL to the story online along with a PDF of what was printed? The answer is YES.... within reason. If the gallery was a large component of your story and readers were directed there (because staff spent significant time editing said gallery), then it is relevant to your story. If it is just a little "something extra," then do not submit the URL to the online gallery. Judges have a LOT to judge, and their focus should be on material relevant to the story.

Do I need to send anything to Michigan Press Association World Headquarters?

The entire contest is online only this year. You can even pay online with credit card or PayPal. Please follow payment instructions at BetterPublicationContest.com.

How can I make my PDF files smaller?

Most publication PDFs include high-resolution grayscale or CMYK images for printing. However, PDF contest entries will be viewed and judged on a computer monitor, which displays at low resolution (72-96dpi) in RGB color. Changes in the resolution and color mode of images are the most effective ways to reduce file size without sacrificing quality.

1. Resolution. In PDFs, text is always clear regardless of resolution: resolution relates only to photos and rasterized graphics. Reducing resolution by half reduces image file size by 75%. The recommended maximum resolution of 96dpi can be enforced by Distiller settings.

2. Color mode. Converting from CMYK to RGB color will reduce image file size by another 25%. This color conversion can again be enforced by Distiller settings.

If you reduce image resolution and/or convert color mode in your entry PDFs with a PDF editor (e.g., Enfocus Pitstop or Quite a Box of Tricks) or use the native profiling/editing tools in Acrobat 6 or later, YOU WILL NOT GAIN THE EXPECTED REDUCTION IN FILE SIZE unless you redistill the PDF afterward.

When will we see the results of the contest?

Contest results will be announced at the Annual Convention. Certificates will be mailed shortly after. If your publication is part of a group, your certificates will be mailed with other certificates awarded for that group to the publisher.

Who can enter the Open Class Contests?

*If you are a member newspaper, college member, individual member or News Media Member and your dues are paid in full you can enter.

How do I know what to write in my entry descriptions?

First, know that whatever you write in your entry fields is what the judges will see. We WILL NOT edit what you put there, so if you credit "PeeWee Herman" with writing a story that is who the judges will see. Also, PeeWee will be awarded a certificate, because we will use entry titles and credits to print on awards. Being simple and direct with your descriptions is best. If an entire staff is responsible for an entry, simply write "staff" in the credits.

What if there are several run dates for my one entry?

You must enter a run date. Please enter the earliest date of the entry and the remaining dates in the comment section.

Other Information:

Contest is open to Staff Members of the member only.

For freelancers to be able to enter they need to have their own membership.
