About the Michigan Press Association Foundation

The Michigan Press Association Foundation was established in 1980 to further the interests of community journalism in Michigan. The Foundation's mission includes serving the public interest by encouraging, fostering and aiding improvements in the quality, vigor and fairness of journalism and a free press in the State of Michigan. The Foundation has invested more than $330,000 in Michigan journalism since 1990, including the award of nearly 300 scholarships to college-level journalism students. In addition to the Wade McCree awards, the MPA Foundation also sponsors the Richard Milliman Michigan Journalist of the Year competition. Learn more about the MPA Foundation at michiganpress.org/foundation/.

Awards for the Advancement of Justice

for work published,
broadcast and/or posted
January 1, 2022
to December 31, 2022

Print, Online, and Broadcast Awards for Journalists

Wade H. McCree, Jr.

Judge McCree was dedicated to advancing a greater understanding of the role of a free press in a free society. During a remarkable career that included service as a federal judge, law professor and Solicitor General of the United States, he touched the lives of millions of Americans. Judge McCree was an early and dedicated supporter of the establishment of the Advancement of Justice Awards. The awards were renamed the Wade H. McCree Jr. Awards for the Advancement of Justice in his honor in 1987.

The McCree Awards recognize Michigan broadcast, print and on-line journalists whose work fosters greater public understanding of the values of our legal and judicial systems. To be eligible, journalistic work must be published, broadcast and/or posted between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31, 2022.

- Informs and educates citizens about the role of the law, courts, law enforcement agencies and the legal profession;
- Discloses practices and procedures in need of correction or improvement; and
- Encourages and promotes local and statewide legal and legislative efforts to reform or modernize laws, courts and practices of law enforcement agencies.

A panel of judges will evaluate entries based on their significance, quality of information, solutions offered and impact. Topics must be clearly dominated by justice themes. Entries may consist of feature or news articles, analyses, editorials, or combinations of these. In the broadcast category, documentaries, educational or editorial programs may be submitted. Any Michigan newspaper, news service, news syndicate or network, magazine, television or radio station or legal publication, or any employees of such entities are eligible to enter. There is no charge for entering.

Entry Requirements

Print, online and broadcast entries may consist of feature articles, news articles, interpretive analysis, editorials, radio and/or televised documentary, educational or editorial programs or any combination of these.

To enter, go to https://betternewspapercontest.com/open\_contestants/login, create an open call account.

• If you already have an open call account from a previous year or if you have entered other open call contests here are the steps to add the 2023 Michigan McCree Award contest to My Contests:

•Once you login go to Open Call Contests

•Click on My Contests

•Find 2023 Michigan McCree Award under available contests and click in the check box

Once you click it, the contest will move up to Pending Contests and you will then be approved by the contest admin

•While waiting to be approved for the contest, you can go to Manage Entries and start your contest entry.

When submitting your entry please include:

•Submit a cover letter that is a maximum of two pages in length that explains your entry, contains background information about your entry and explains any changes that have been made to the legal, law enforcement or legislative systems based on your entry. Any entry without the cover letter will be disqualified.

•Your entry can consist of up to 6 attachments either .pdf files or links to your website (or any combination of both). For audio and video files, first upload to a third party site such as your YouTube channel, Vimeo, or station website. Then enter the URL/Link in the entry form. Your cover letter is in addition to the 6 attachments for your entry.

Please ensure the cover letter contains the name, professional title and contact information for each contributor to the project being submitted to the contest.

Up to five prizes may be awarded. The Michigan Press Association Foundation reserves the right to make no awards.

Awards will be presented in April 2023 at Michigan State University in conjunction with the Michigan Journalism Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony.

All entries must have been published, broadcast and/or posted between January 1 and December 31, 2022, and entered no later than 11:59 p.m. Friday, February 3, 2023 on the Better Newspaper Contest website https://betternewspapercontest.com/open\_contestants/login and select 2023 Michigan McCree Awards Open Call.
